DETAILS OF MODUS VIVENDI-

Sr. Jours. October 10 The agitation regarding the Fisheries ques-tion is growing. The clergy of all creeds are orging the Government to take vigorous action with the object of collifying the modes-viewed with America. Two Colonial cruisers have been ordered to the Bay Islands to begin patrolling.

LONDON, Oct.ber 10.

The Foreign Office has published the full summwy of the modus-viveed with America concerning the Newfoundland Herring Fisheries. Great Britain undertakes rot to softree the law recently passed by the Newfoundland Legislature, aimed expressly at preventing American Substrance from profiting by local advantages. She also consents to the American suring porce and coines, to which the Newfoundlanders particularly object. America agrees that no fishing will take place on Sondays in-order toe conform with certain colonial regulations.
